John Powers and Berry Howard have been located in Harlan and Bell counties, respectively, but the Commonwealth is advised that their arrest at this time would be useless, as the county judges would release them, as was done when Powers was arrested in Knox county.

He has also ordered the change made on all stationery at the White House, and all linen, silverware and china hereafter purchased by Mrs. Roosevelt's orders will be similarly marked.

The jury in the Powers case was finally completed at Georgetown and the defense filed a motion for the discharge of the whole box on account of its alleged political complexion. A supporting affidavit claimed, among other things, that Powers was a victim of persecution on account of his political belief and that the jury was "fixed." Judge Cantrill overruled the motion to disqualify the jury and also a request for permission to file a demurrer to the indictment. Though balked in these tactics for delay the defense is confident it will be able to kill enough more time to keep the case from being finished at this term of court, thus securing a mistrial.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with such ideas, men, pronounced it incurable. Science, however, has discovered that Catarrh is a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Is a Candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the 24 District, subject to the will of the democracy.

IF Col. W. P. Walton, of the Harrardsburg Democrat, has as smooth sailing in other counties as he will have in Garrard, he will win the railroad com-missionership in a walk. The democrats here appreciate the gallant fight he has made for the party at all times, and know that he has never failed to take his place on the firing line in every hard fought battle the party has engaged in. On the other hand, Col.
Walton has made many friends among the republicans, who admire his "grit" and appreciate his work as an editor.
As the Record has said before, if he is not given the place it will be the basest piece of ingratitude upon the part of the democracy. But he is going to get there with both feet.—Lancaster Record.

AT the head of this column will be shown the way that democrats will vote. A cross in the circle under the rooster will cause your vote to be recorded for the entire democratic ticket.
Stamp there and if there is to be any scratching the game cock is able to do it. There is little danger of democratic defeat in this county, absolutely none if democrats will go to the polls.
The election is just a few weeks off.
Get in your work now on every doubtful voter and be sure to be at the polls with him Nov. 5.

THE Paducah News-Democrat correctly sizes up the situation as follows:
Now listen for the abuse of Col. T. C.
Campbell at the hands of the assassination organs. By the way, it may not be a fact generally known to republicans in this part of Kentucky that the man defended by Col. Campbell and whose light sentence resulted in the Cincinnati riot, was subsequently pardoned by McKinley while governor of Ohio. Wonder if even such assassination organs as the Post know this piece of history?

THE health authorities of Stark county, Ind., have adopted an unusual method of controlling an epidemic of diphtheria by ordering the killing of every cat in the infected section of the country. Cats have been found suffering with the disease in its virulent type, and the epidemic is attributed to this source. As cats spread disease and dogs make night hideous, what's the matter with exterminating both the canine and feline creation?

THIS from the Louisville Post may be taken with a good supply of salt: It is said steps will be taken to furnish a guard for Judge Cantrell, at Georgetown, owing to the rumored threats against his life.

THE real reason Roosevelt appointed Gov. Jones to a Federal judgeship in Alabama has leaked out. There was no republican in the State qualified to fill the position.

The Powers Trial.

The State in the Powers case announces that it will close to-day. At noon yesterday the defendant was seized with a vomiting spell and showed other signs of collapse.

Arthur Goebel has employed Earl Asbrook, of Paris, to assist in the prosecution of Powers, while the defense will be assisted by former Commonwealth's Attorney John S. Smith, of Paris.

Thirteen witnesses were examined during the second day of the trial of Caleb Powers. Edward Steffey testified that he was offered $15 by a friend of Powers to go to the office of a Louisville newspaper and make a statement that he had perjured himself in his testimony on the first trial of Powers. He named Dr. S. P. Timmons, of Louisville, as the man who had made the proposition.

Ike Hopkins, of Bell county, a new witness swore to damaging facts against all the men accused of Goebel's murder. He implicated Taylor, Youtsey, Caleb Powers and Wharton Golden.
He testified that Caleb Powers told him there was going to be a fight at Frankfort and that all the men should keep silent after Goebel was shot. A man in the governor's reception room tried to break open the office of the Secretary of State with a hatchet, but Taylor and W. J. Davidson told him not to do it. Davidson drew a revolver and told the man if he opened the door he would shoot. On Saturday before Goebel was shot, Hopkins said, "Youtsey was talking with 'Tallow' Dick Combs. He said: 'My job depends on Goebel's life. I have given Combs $100 to do the work and 25 others have done the same thing. Goebel will be killed and this is the man (pointing to Combs), who will do it.'"

THINGS ABOUT COLDS

I

Never let a cough or cold get the start of you. Disease finds its best ally in our disdain of "only a cold."

II

Find a remedy you can rely on and keep it in the house. A reliable remedy is one that cures quickly, and without the possibility of harm.

III

Such a remedy is Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar. It cures the right way. It doesn't dry up a cough. It soothes inflamed surfaces, stops irritation and promotes expectoration. Equally good for young and old. Price 25c.

THE Q. & C. will run its last excursion of the season to Cincinnati Sunday. This is the last chance to secure the low excursion rates until the season opens again next spring. Round trip $1.25.

KILLED HERSELF.—The bay mare owned by Hon. James N. Saunders and driven to Walter Saunders' delivery wagon, got down in her stall in Bruce's livery stable Wednesday night and was dead when found yesterday morning. She didn't like to be hitched and had previously been found down in her stall.

STARTS THEM EARLY.—Mr. S. W. Burke, the Junction City liveryman, believes in starting his boys in business early in life. He has taken as full partners in his business, which we are glad to say is a paying one, his two sons, aged two years and three months respectively. They should be hustlers by the time they get to be men.

A COUNTRY man came to town the other day and called on one of our undertakers, saying he wanted to look at some coffins. "Who's dead," he was asked and he replied, "Oh! nobody, yet, but my wife's mighty sick and I thought I'd just take a look at your stock so as to know where to come for a coffin when she dies." He was given the sad pleasure of looking at a number of caskets and left feeling that he had struck the right place to buy his wife's outfit. There's nothing like taking time by the forelock.

BALLOT PAPER.—The paper to be used in making ballots for the coming election has arrived and the ballots will be printed next week. The paper is from Diem & Wing, the well-known Cincinnati paper firm, and is not the kind it is claimed was used in Johnson, Knox, Martin and other counties two years ago by a long shot. On the contrary it is of fine quality, 80 pounds in weight and the very kind that should be used in the election of our splendid democratic ticket. We printed 5,000 educational ballots a few days ago.

HUBBLE.—L. C. King sold to Jake Robinson 250 barrels of corn at the heap at $2.50. James Hackley sold to T. C. Rankin 19 mule colts at $32. The ladies of the Christian church have organized an aid society. A. P. Sloan, of Wayne, is with James McKechnie. Miss Annie Perkins, of Garrard, is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Eubanks. Ed Miller is down from Rockcastle. Geo. Wood is in Casey hunting cattle. Eld. A. R. Moore will preach here at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Milford Eubanks, of Mt. Salem, is here, as is Jas. Floyd, of Casey.

ACCOMMODATING.—Mr. Jas. F. Holdam, the clever and efficient circuit clerk, is the most accommodating gentleman in the county. He not only enjoys doing his fellow-man favors, but frequently seeks an opportunity for doing so. During the four years he has been in office we don't exaggerate when we say he has taken several hundred bundles of stationery to Crab Orchard merchants for us and whether it is through force of habit or genuine cleverness, we are not able to say, he very frequently calls at this office and asks, "Anything for Crab Orchard this evening?" Mr. Holdam makes fully 600 trips between Stanford and Crab Orchard annually and he told us the other day that he had never gone the distance without one or more bundles, and has carried as many as a round dozen. "It is no trouble to me to thus favor my friends and I am always glad to take packages without money and without price, so don't hesitate to ask me," he said when we weighted him down with printing matter the other day.

HUSTONVILLE.—Dr. Edward Alcorn writes as follows to the Danville Advocate about Hustonville's municipal affairs: Judge Felix B. Twidwell has served the city very acceptably and to the eminent satisfaction of all concerned as police judge for four years and desires to fill the position for another term. Mr. J. D. Swope is his opponent, and is also a good man. Mr. A. C. Jones, who has been a terror to evil doers in the capacity of town marshal, has declined to make the race again. David Newburn and William Lair have announced and are doing some tall electioneering. Either of these gentlemen could be depended upon to fulfill the law if intrusted with the position sought. Messrs. L. C. Carpenter, W. R. Williams, I. F. Steele and A. M. Frye, headed by Mayor J. P. Goode, compose the present board of councilmen. They have behind them an unspotted record for the able and judicious management of municipal affairs, and will be candidates for re-election. An opposing ticket may be put in the field, but a full list of the names has not yet been obtained.

OUR shoe department is filled with pumps. Don't buy until you see what we have. John P. Jones.

DEMOCRATIC harmony and a united effort should be the motto in Lincoln county for the next 15 days.

SALE.—In our advertising columns will be found notice of the sale of J. W. Allen, which occurs Thursday, Oct. 31. Besides selling a lot of stock, feed, farming implements, etc., he will dispose of his pretty little home in Hustonville and 35 acres of land adjoining it. The house is a modern six-room cottage, very comfortable and convenient and a most desirable home. A large lot of household and kitchen furniture will also be sold.

STANFORD TENT, No. 7, Maccabees of the World, broke the record Wednesday night by initiating a round dozen candidates into the mysteries of that good order. They are J. M. Alverson, Rowan Sandley, S. P. Stagg, J. E. Portman, L. R. Hughes, A. B. Florence, W. T. Stone, W. H. Belden, J. A. Corniney, T. P. Hill Spalding, A. S. Broadus and U. S. Traylor. The Junction City degree team, the best in the State, did the initiatory work, which was very fine indeed. Seven years ago this team assisted in organizing the tent here and it was fitting that it should be called on on this brilliant occasion. While all of the visiting gentlemen did well in their parts the Past Commander, King and Judas were especially fine. In the absence of the gentleman, who takes Mattithias Eleazer, detained at home by illness, Supreme First Master of Guard M. F. Elkin, of this place, played the role very creditably. After the work was over a number of the members made timely talks, including Mr. Elkin, who told of the growth of the order in Kentucky and elsewhere. Though only 20 years old it has 525,000 members, 157,000 of whom live in the State of Michigan. In Kentucky there are 3,200 members, who carry about $4,000,000 in insurance. There has been no trouble whatever in the payment of policies and the three losses in Lincoln county were paid in 10 days after official notification was made. Stanford Tent was instituted in April of 1893 with 27 members, and while its growth has not been phenomenal, it has 90 substantial members today, who represent the principal business interests of Stanford and Lincoln county. This Tent has the distinction of having an officer of the Supreme Tent as a member and in him is found an untiring worker. Mr. Elkin takes great interest in his home lodge and it was through his influence that Supreme Commander D. P. Markey lectured here several years ago. Our people will remember Mr. Markey's excellent effort and possibly no little of the credit of the substantial growth of the order in this county is due to his clear and forceful presentation of the object of the order of Maccabees and the great good it is doing. Stanford Tent has just received handsome paraphernalia and a degree team is getting in readiness to do work. With the good talent it has there is no reason why it should not soon rank with the foremost teams in the State and that it will do so we have no doubt. The visiting knights were handsomely entertained while here with supper at the St. Asaph Hotel and a palatable lunch at John H. Meier's restaurant, which lasted until the wee sma' hours.

The following gentlemen compose Junction City's degree team: W. C. Surber, Dr. J. R. Steele, Dr. H. S. Chase, Charles Lingle, R. H. West, Mat Engleman, Will J. Burke, Jos. E. Prewitt, Joe E. Booth and L. J. Miller.

KINGSVILLE:

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Christian church, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. L. Allen, of Danville. The sick, as a rule, are improving. Master Joseph Richard Walter is quite sick. We haven't heard anything of "grip" yet, but just wait.

Father Thomas, of Ottenheim, will perform the ceremony at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Pennybacker and Dr. Benjamin G. Allen on the 23rd.

Your correspondent spent most of last week with friends in Somerset, stopping over at Eubanks to spend a day with her brother, J. E. Creighton, at the Donnelley Hotel.

Miss Lillie Gooch and Sebastian Chevolette will be married today at the Christian church by Rev. Dr. Allen. Miss Gooch is a handsome young woman, and the groom to be, a fine young man. The bridal couple will leave today for Ludlow to remain a week.

Mrs. Wm. Peairs and two children, of Detroit, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Wm. Reynolds, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. G. W. Ball, of Ludlow, visited relatives at McKinney a few days last week. Mrs. G. W. Ball has returned to her home at Ludlow after a pleasant visit to relatives here. J. M. McCarty will go to Cincinnati today to purchase Fall goods.

In his recent write-up of Somerset the editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL failed to mention one very interesting subject i. e. the beauty of the young ladies. It is a little city noted, or ought to be, for its pretty girls. Of the many who are made conspicuous by radiant beauty are Misses Marguerite Porch and Ada Sheppard, besides numerous handsome young matrons, who are of course attractive.

Crab Orchard.

Our little railroad park is yet a thing of beauty in autumnal robes.

Sorghum making and nut gathering are the present occupation of many.

An immense amount of lumber and telephone poles await shipment at the lumber yard near the depot.

Crab Orchard has a good dentist now, Dr. Cole, who seems to be doing a prosperous business in his office at the Gover House.

J. C. McWhorter has purchased the late Mrs. Crockett Dillon's home on Stanford street and will move to it in the near future.

Our milliners, Mrs. Kitty King and Miss Jennie Payne, have a nice line of millinery and promise satisfaction to all the ladies who desire anything in their line.

Mrs. J. S. Stapp has opened her school and has a select class of pupils. The health of Dr. Stapp has improved sufficiently so he is rendering assistance in some classes.

Roscoe Perkins left Monday for Pueblo, Col., where he hopes to recuperate his failing health. He will be missed by his associates and friends, all of whom wish him well.

The band boys gave a very elegant oyster and ice cream supper at the school building Wednesday night, upon which occasion they dispensed sweet music to those in attendance.

We are having lovely weather and every one seems to be taking advantage of it in every possible way, farmers gathering their harvest, filling their barns, hauling wood and making every necessary preparation for winter.

Mrs. Margaret Gormley was called by telegram to attend the burial of her grand daughter, Miss Mildred Gormley, at Richmond. Mrs. J. B. Willis is visiting her sons in Fayette, and is enjoying a well-earned and much-needed rest, after her arduous labors during the prosperous watering season just past.

Mrs. J. J. Brooks is visiting her sister, Mrs. Joseph Minary, in Versailles. Miss Virginia Worrell spent a few days with friends in Garrard. Miss Jean Buchanan is home from an extended visit to friends in Louisville and Lebanon. Lon Pettus is down from Livingston spending a few days with his family. Miss Edie Ewell, of Louisville, is a pleasant visitor of Mrs. Alice Singleton. Mrs. Scott Farris returned Wednesday from a visit to friends in Lancaster. J. S. Samron is on the sick list.

Mrs. A. Addams returned to her home in Lebanon yesterday, after a very pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. Jane Buchanan. J. W. James and wife have taken possession of their newly purchased home, formerly owned by Mrs. Catherine McAllister. They contemplate remodeling it in the spring. Misses Rhoda and Allie Pittman, of Parksville, have been pleasant guests of Mrs. Kittie King and Miss Bettie Higgins. They returned to their home yesterday, accompanied by Miss Mollie Pittman, who has been assisting Mrs. King in the millinery business.
